Race Fan Rally Driver Announcement

Joliet, Ill. – Final plans are in place for the Joliet Race Fan Rally taking place Thursday, Sept. 15 at 5 p.m. on Chicago Street in downtown Joliet. Event organizers named the following participating drivers at this year's event: Todd Bodine, Jennifer Jo Cobb, Johnny Sauter, Timmy Hill, Matt Crafton, Dakota Armstrong and Jeremy Clements.

"This year's event promises to be one of the best ever," said Tom Mahalik, Vice President, Joliet City Center Partnership. "Drivers are lining up to be a part of the 10th Anniversary of the Joliet Race Fan Rally and are eager to come out and meet the great fans who attend this event."

For the first time in Chicagoland Speedway history, the NASCAR Camping World Truck Series will be a part of the event weekend. Two-time Series Champion, Todd Bodine, will represent the series and his sponsors at Race Fan Rally.

"We have a diverse group of drivers, like Todd Bodine from the Camping World Truck Series and Jennifer Jo Cobb, our first female NASCAR driver, who will participate in Race Fan Rally. Our goal is to provide the fans and event attendees with the best in entertainment and driver appearances," says Mahalik.

Additional driver announcements will be made as soon as others sign on. Driver information and festival details can be found on the official event website, www.racefanrally.com.

The Joliet Race Fan Rally is an annual family-friendly festival in Downtown Joliet kicking off Chicagoland's NASCAR race week. The event is free and open to the public, and includes live bands, race car driver appearances, show cars and other motorsports exhibits. For more information please visit www.racefanrally.com.
